

1933 Captain CH Bembridge. R Smith known as 'Iron' Smith beat WN Woodward. The caddies Laurie Bryan (who later became secretary) and Bill Lamb

Captain A N Jones presents his prize to HPV Williams who beat W Lamb 3&2 over 36 holes. Second from left is the parks superintendent George Cowie.

1935: Captain LC Mercer. G Marshall Finch beat Lorne Davies 4&2 over 36 holes. In the background is Bill Saxon who later became secretary.

1936: Captain James Dodd. Two very fine golfers contested the final, Fred Price beating Joe Wootton at the 36th. 'The gallery expected fireworks in more ways than one and they were not disappointed'.

1937: Captain WE Woodward. Tony Taylor was victor with Len Williamson the gracious loser. To the right of captain can be seen E Reeves at the time treasurer. At the back on right of Bill Roberts now secretary, can be seen Stan Roberts

1938: Captain JD Shaw. The last final played while the club had its headquarters in the 'old hall'. Wilf Armitage beat hot favourite Peek Oliver 10&9

1939: Captain WN Jones. Dreadful weather and the contestants Bill Lamb and Alex Phillips deserved congratulations for a very fine game Lamb winning 4&2